NOT FAIR.

Brooklyn is having an exciting contest in trying to determine the least number of razor strokes with which a man can shave clean. As any man who lives in Brooklyn is bound to have a long face, it is hardly a fair test.—Cleveland Leader.

Samarkand has been an important city of Turkistan for many centuries. It is about 200 miles to the northeastward of the ancient Oxus and is the terminus of a railroad connecting it with the Caspian Sea and passing through Kokhara and Merv.

Early in the fifteenth century Tamerlane consolidated the Manchus into a great nation with Samarkand as his capital. Here he died, and here is his tomb.

STEAMER MAUNA KEA.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—The steamer Mauna Kea, being built for the Inter-Island Steamship Company to run between Honolulu and Hilo, was successfully launched yesterday.

The new steamer which the Inter-Island Company will soon have in commission, will be a big improvement on any of the vessels at present in the service. She will be 251 feet long and 37 feet beam compared with the 186 feet length and 32 feet beam of the Kinau. She will be a modern vessel in all respects, being modeled after the S. S. Mongolia. She is provided with a double bottom and will have five decks above the hold. Her cabin accommodations will be for 160 passengers, with much better accommodations for steerage passengers than now exist. She is fitted with triple expansion engines and the contract calls for a speed of fifteen knots. Her freight capacity is 600 tons.
